Please Read This Document Carefully

The frequently asked questions and related answers in this document establish the terms and conditions for treatment at Sue Thompson Counselling and Psychotherapy.

Please ensure that these terms and conditions are fully accepted by you prior to attending subsequent appointments. If you feel you would require a change to your terms and conditions, please speak with me prior to our second session.

Signed Consent (in line with the new General Data Protection Regulations (2018))

As the processing of your personal data is required to enable me to provide you with a service, I do not require consent from you to hold your information securely or to provide you with this service, but will take this opportunity to assure you I adhere to all laws and procedures relating to data protection (Article 9, paragraph 2, (h) of the GDPR) and will only use your data to provide you with this service and for any further reason you explicitly consent to below.

I, the client (parent), consent to you contacting my son/daughter GP as a courtesy, to inform them of the treatment they are receiving and why, and to update them when my treatment has ceased. This will also provide your GP with an opportunity to get in touch should this treatment not be suitable for you.
